

IMMERSIVE AUSLAN EXPERIENCE | PUBLIC TRANSPORT FRIENDLY

BLUESTONE HISTORY TOURS

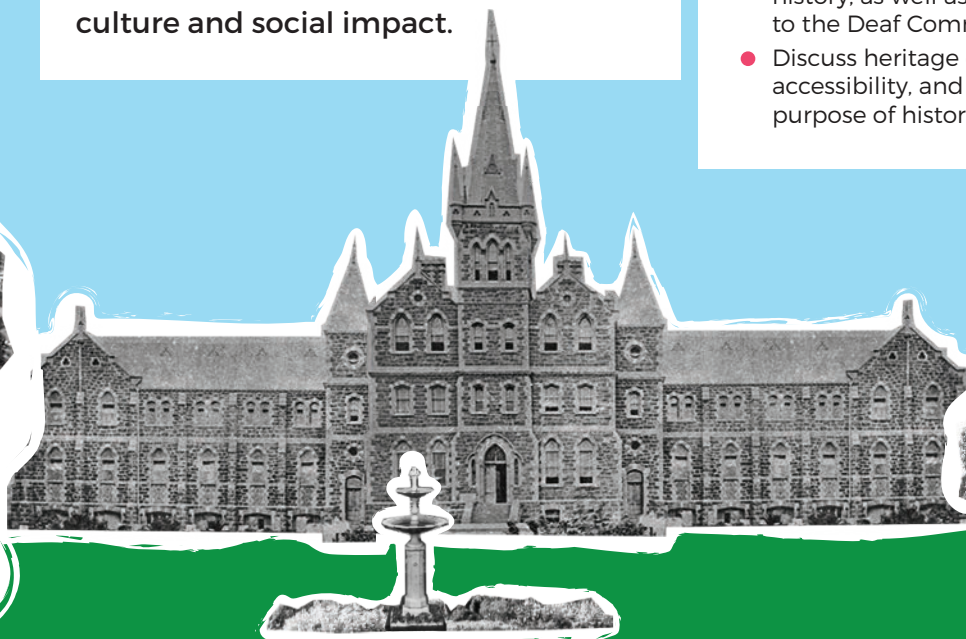

Explore language, Deaf Culture & history in one place.

Located on St Kilda Road, Deaf Children Australia's Bluestone Building has stood since the 1860s. Our Bluestone History Tour offers tertiary students a unique, real-world learning experience that connects history, culture and social impact.

On our tour (Auslan guide optional) students will:

- Explore original 19th-century architectural features
- Learn about the building's evolution and its place in Victoria's education and social history, as well as its importance to the Deaf Community
- Discuss heritage conservation, accessibility, and the modern purpose of historical spaces

Join us for a Bluestone History Tour.
